Not Doing a Retail Business.—The Fair reporter of the Commercial "leaves the better informed public to judge of his indignation" when the owner of a four-year old colt, at the County Fair, offered himhaif a dollar for a first-rate notice. The farmer was evidently not aware that the Commercial rule is whole or none."

THE RECENT WIFE-MURDER IN THE SIXTH THE RECENT WIFE-MUNDER IN THE SIXTH WARD.—Thomas Reagan, who was arrested a few days ago upon a charge of kicking his wife to death on the 30th ult., was arraigned before Judge Lowe, and, after an examination, committed to jail in default of bail in the sum of $1,500, to await a trial, before the next term of the Court of Common Pleas, for murder in the second degree.

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY IN BURNET-STREET.
A fellow named William A. Dowe, about eleven o'clock Sunday night, made an effort to enter the sexton's apartments in the Second Presbyterian Church, but was unsuccessful; for, being discovered, he was conveyed to the station-house and thence before Judge Lowe, by whom he was committed to the City Prison for a term of thirty days.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE COUNTY COMMISSION-REE.—At their regular diurnal session, yes-terday morning, the County Commissioners passed orders amounting in the aggregate to $255 08; of which $133 50 were paid to John Schott for plastering Lick Run Lunatic Asylum, and $121 56 to E. D. Cruiksbank, weekly pay-roll for new jail. No other business of any kind was transacted.

GEN. LANE VISITED BY MEXICAN VOLUNTERS.—Gen. Joe Lane, of Oregon, who has been in the city for several days past, was called upon, yesterday, at his rooms, at the Burnet House, by a body of Mexican volunteers. He received them cordially, and spent some time in talking over the incidents of the war. The reunion was a pleasant one in every respect, and will long be ant one in every respect, and will long be remembered by all who participated in it.

Man Seriously Injured by a Fall, of Lumbers.—A man named John Lambert, who resides somewhere in the Seventeenth Ward, while engaged in piling a lot of lamber, yesterday afternoon, was quite severely injured. A very heavy plank which a fellow-laborer was endeavoring to raise to the top of a large pile, fell and struck him on the head, crushing him to the earth. The skull of the unfortunate man was fractured and his arm broken; but medical aid was immediately called, and it is thought he will ultimately recover. ultimately recover.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES FOR JUSTICES OF THE PEACE.—The Democratic County Executive met, yesterday afternoon, at Hannan's Hall, corner of Sixth and Sycamore, for the pur-pose of nominating five candidates for Justice of the Peace. A motion was made to refer the matter to the County Convention, to be held to-day at Mount Pleasant, which was lost by a vote of seven to ten. The fol-lowing persons were then nominated for the office: Peter Bell, J. H. Getzendamer, G. O. Thilman, Charles D. Foote and Robert McGrew.

RUNAWAY AND ACCIDENT-Child Seriously RUNAWAY AND ACCIDENT—CARA Service of Injured.—A horse attached to a milk-wagon became alarmed at some thing, yesterday afternoon, on Smith-street, below Third, and dashed down the former thoroughfare at a furious pace. When near Front-street a little girl, about six years of age, daughter of Mrs.
Foreman, residing in the neighborhood, was knocked down by the frightened animal and nearly killed. Her skull was fearfully fractured, and several of her ribs broken in such a manner that it is feared her lungs have been punctured, in which case death will be almost inevitable.

EXTRAORDINARY LABIAL OUTRAGE,-Man's Lip Bitten Off.—Day before yester-day a quarrel occurred at the Miami Canal Basin, near Eighth-street, when Mr. Pierce Basin, near Eighth-street, when Mr. Pierce German interfered to separate the belligerent German interfered to separate the belligerent parties, and received a severe blow in the face. A man named Michael Wallace, remonstrated, when he was seized about the neck by an individual named Timothy Rairdon, who bit off his lower lip and then threw it in his face. The cannibalic pugilist was before Judge Lowe, yesterday morning, and committed in default of bail in the sum of $1,000, to answer a charge of maiming, be fore the same Court next Thursday.

IMPROVEMENTS IN THE BURNET HOUSE,— Messrs. Johnson, Sanders & Co., proprietors of the Burnet House, have just completed a change in their elegant establishment, which is not only an improvement in the arrangement of a portion of the rooms for the lower floor, but will also enable them to accommodate a much larger number of guests. The gentleman's parlor, which was one of the largest in the country, has been transformed into ten new sleeping-rooms, all of which are into ten new sleeping-rooms, all of which are large, roomy and comfortable. This is one of the largest and best hotels in the country, and eminently worthy the patronage of the traveling public.

ATTEMPTED OUTRAGE Upon THE PRESON OF A CHILD.—About nine o'clock, evening before last, Officer Smith, of the Eighth Ward, was attracted to the corner of David and Outter-street by a female voice, which upon arrival, he found to proceed from a little girl, named Catharine Brachman. She was in the cempany of a man named Nathaniel Davis, who, she said, had made improper proposals to her, and when she refused them, had made an effort to violate her person by force. She was but eight years of age, but seemed quite intelligent. Davis was arrested, taken before the Police Court, yesterday morning, and sentenced to the City day morning, and sentenced to the City Prison for a term of twenty days.

Prison for a term of twenty days.

Nocturnal Assault—A Man Severely Beaten and Robbed.—A man named Joseph T. Huston, residing in Baymiller-street, near Clark, was overtaken, night before last, while on his way home, at the corner of Clark and John, by a couple of rulians, who knocked him down, and after heating him until he was semi-insensible, robbed him of a watch valued at $30, and a perte-monnaise containing $14 in bank-bills and coin. He was discovered about one o'clock by some persons who knew him and assisted to his residence, where his wounds were attended to. His head and body are badly bruised, and his cheek severely cut, as if by a sharp instrument; but his injuries, although painful, will not seriously interfere with his duties.

NEWPORT NEWS.

A Bellighert Individual.—Yesterday about noon, Jas. Dixon, somewhat under the influence of liquor, entered a whisky-shop on the corner of Jefferson and Monmouth, and demanded a drink, which was refused him. Dixon became enraged at the barkeeper, and threw a half brick at him, which narrowly missed the head of the intended victim. He was immediately arrested, and will have a hearing to-day before Mayor Hawkins.

As Unpleasant Journey.—S. S. Wood, the soldier arrested a few days ago, charged with being an escaped convict from New York, was yesterday taken before the Court now in session in Covington, and ordered into the custody of Mr. Warner, Chief of the Rochester (New York) Police. Quite unwillingly he accompanies the officer back to the seenes of his transcreasions. scenes of his transgressions. POLITICAL .- On Saturday night next, Fred.

C. Jones, Esq., of the Kentucky Town Ball Club, will address the Bell and Everett Club of our city, at the Court-house. - MAYOR HAWKINS'S COURT,-Several interesting cases will be tried this morning, be-fore Mayor Hawkins, at the Court-house.

A SCRVIVOR OF BUNKER HILL.—In the course of his last Fourth-of-July oration, Mr. Everett said, that in all probability, no Mr. Everett said, that in all probability, no man was now living who took part in the Battle of Bunker Hill. Since then it has been discovered that one Mr. Ralph Farnham, a resident of Acton, Me., now in the 105th year of his age, was present during the engagement, though he took no prominent part in it, having only enlisted the day before. He served, however, through three campeigns. The old man is hale and hearty, fervently plous, and has voted for every President of the United States thus far, and hopes to yote for the next. nopes to vote for the next.

The Son of an Engine Earl Working as an Artisan.—The London correspondent of the Marchester (Eng.) Guardian mays Lord Lovelace's son and heir, the grandson to whom will ultimately go the bulk of the late Lady Byron's large landed property, and who now becomes Baron Wentworth by her death, is, and has for a considerable time past, been working at weekly wages as an artisan in the smith's department of Woolwich Arsenal. For the son of an earl, and the heir of a barony by writ, this is a unique the heir of a barony by writ, this is a unique case.

AMUSEMENTS.

PIRE'S OPERA HOU-E-Opening Night,-The opening of the O era House, last night, drew a apparently had ceterni of to be placed with the company and the play, whether it passed of agrees his or not. It was one of the most amishis as dentinulastic gathering, we remember to have seen, and the mood in which it received every accessing dramatic situation, did much to assist the performers and destroy the effect of the semi-bashfulness that ever accompanies an introduction and a first appearance.

It is said to be unfair to judge of the merit of an actor or an actress at first eight, and while the stage, the scenery, the company and the audiesce are new, and we may therefore be pardoned if we merely refer to the impression the mambers of the new com-pany left upon us, as they appeared last night with-out reference to their general acting ability. Suean Deuth is already known to most of our theater-goers, and favorably. We have "cen her play "Margaret Elmore" better than she did last night;

"Margaret Elmere" better than abe did last right; and yet, when she said to her depressed father "I can not leave you thus," there was a devotion, naturalness and tenderness in her tone that suffused many eyes, and her face, thought less moville than we remember it, looked scorn, contempt, defance, when she spoke the weeks. She was hourse, and evidently not altogether herself; but if we had expected much we should have been disappointed, for these reasons.

Mr. Taylor, the leading man, has not an excellent voice, although he reads in good taste; his carriage is not always graceful, and yet is never disagreeable; his gestures good, yet too numerous. He seems to be careful, and in a different class of characters, will doubtless have a better success.

doubtless have a better success.

Mr. Sheridan is an old acquaintance of the habitee of the Opera-house, and he acted in his best style of the Opera-house, and he acted in his best style, although he was made up somewhat like a second-rate Mephistophiles. Mr. Hale, the low comedian, enacted the part of "Jean Ruse" admirably; Mrs. Coleman Pope that of "Manon" fairly; Mr. Mortimer that of "St. Lo" capitally. Of the others we prefer to reserve our opinion. The Gale sisters danced very gracefully and with couniderable appliance. This eventual the company will arrow in plause. This evening the company will appear in Consills, with Susin Denin as the deeply devoted but erring girl, whose loving and self-ascrificing nature were sufficient to have the entire dead-monde. The rformance will conclude with the capital farce of Poor Pillicoddy.

NATIONAL THEATER.—The audience was small at the National last night, but the performance agreeable. This evening the drams of the Wept of the Wish-ton-mish will be presented, together with Margot, the Foultry-Decler, in both of which Maggie Mitchell will appear.

Wood's THEATER .- Coleman's comedy of The Heir-at-Love, was substituted, last night, at this establishment, for Goldsmith's comedy She Stoops to Conquer, to a very slender audience, and in a style

EDWIN FOREIST IN THE BICHELIEU.-Mr. Forrest has met, in the city of Baltimore, with a critic who fully appreciates his genius. The delicate analysis the Potriot gives of the great tragedian's "render-ing of" the part of "Richelion" is in gratifying contrast with the flippant judgments uttered by certain Sir Oracles of the press. The thought has long wanted expression that this rendering is "des-tiped to stand in the stream of the dramatic world's events, as in one of the huge rocks in its channel never to be disturbed." Perhaps no traor estimate of Mr. Forrest's rendering of "Richelleu" has ever been made than that afforded in the following pas of Mr. Forest's remoting of "Accessed has care been made then that afforded in the following passage of the Patriot:

If we had the time and the room, we would expantate with delight upon his admirable rendering of the passages, where he told the young man there is no anch word as rath, in the lexicon of brighty outth; where he summoned the courtlers around the King, to make abon; where he space of degroes being the corner-stone of his administration of public affairs, and to such an extent that the charityless lever could obtain it without a crawling abasement; where he lanched the thunders of the Holy Church against the King-despoller of feminine virtue, and planted his ward within the charmed circle of the Holy Altar; where he failed to wield the huge aword, and held up the pen as the mighty weapon of civilization; where he gots passession of the treasonable packet, awes his beloved France, and has the head of his conspirator; but no words can describe the reality. You must see Forrest with your own eyes in the character—see him towering through the busy, hurrying events of this dramatic scene, and hear him speak, cough, sigh, despond, throaten, and at last vindicate the power and statemanship of the Cardinal, to realize the actor's wast gentus and nice perception of the lines and shadows of his part.

Yesterday's Louisville Courier says:

The river, Saturday, was stationary, with five feet one inch in the Canal by the mark in the evening. During the previous twenty-four hours it had not risen half an inch at the head of the Falls. The weather was hot and suitry during the day, but at neon a light shower sprung up which cooled the atmosphere.

Last evening the river was slowly swelling, with five feet two inches water in the Canal by the mark. During the previous twenty-fair hours, the river had risen one inch at the head of the Falls, and fully four inches at Portland. The weather was very coul and windy.

four inches at Portland. The weather was very cool and windy.

Saturday night it rained hard, and the wind blew a perfect hurricene all along the river between this place and dincinnati. The officers report having encountered a severe storm late Saturday, but heard of no sweere damage being done at any place. The May Duke, in going down to enter the Caual, was blown against Capt. Tobin's new boat for the Ounchita, now being built at the city wharf, staving her larboard buildhead, but not injuring the new boat in the least. The R. M. Patton No. 2, in starting out, was blown out on the rocks, where she lay for several hours, but at last succeeded in getting off, and started on her way South. The wind blew hard for a short time, and some earlous damage may have been done.
